Visit myreflectionmatters.org for more resources.

My Reflection Matters Village is a virtual co-learning community designed to support radical caregivers and educators wanting support in raising and educating free (primarily BIPOC) people. In the Village, we offer two memberships--one exclusively for caregivers and a second tier open to both educators and caregivers. Our second tier gives members access to our Culturally Responsive Resources Village where decolonized tips, resources, exclusive discounts, and access to events and a socially conscious community are readily available to members. ## Home Educator Experts

MRM, founder, Chemay Morales-James, leads a grassroots co-operative and Facebook group for families of color in Connecticut that have chosen to home educate called, My Reflection Matters in CT Home Education. There is a misconception that homeschooling is a practice that only white families engage in; however this is false. Below are some of MRM's favorite home educators of color offering liberated, decolonized parenting and education support. Click here to read about other folk.
